Faith That Asks Something of Us: Doing the Truth in Love

Saturday, April 14, 2018 @ 9:00 am - 1:30 pm

Presenter: Ann Marie O'Connor

To act justly, love tenderly, and walk humbly with your God...these words of the prophet Micah were actualized in Jesus' living. He showed us over and over again that no one is outside the inclusive love of God and called us to ensure the dignity of all people and their inclusion at the table of life - in our homes, our communities, and in our structures that often prevent or deny their participation. He did the Truth in Love. How might we capture his passion for justice and compassion in our own living? How might we develop the virtue of solidarity – a firm and persevering commitment to the common good – and orient ourselves to enacting God's expansive love and care for all in our society? We will explore together how God invites us to live an engaged spirituality for our time.

Includes lunch.
